Duty without love is deplorable. Duty with love is desirable. Love without duty is divine. Duty implies force or compulsion Whilst love is spontaneous and expresses itself without external promptings. All the japa (recitation), dhyana (meditation) and the deeds of merit you perform will be futile if you do not cultivate universal and selfless love.

Foreword

Aum Sri Sai Ram

I have the pleasure to place this Annual Report for the year 2016-17 of Sri Sathya Sai Seva Organisation Jammu and Kashmir, at the Divine Lotus Feet of our Beloved Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. It brings out briefly the details of the activities conducted by our organization in Service, Spiritual and Education sphere. While we can never be fully content with whatever activities we conducted from time to time but surely we can inquire within our own heart and soul to ascertain and analyze what more we could have done at the organizational level thus paving the way for our more concerted effort in conducting all our activities as an offering to our Beloved Master, Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai Baba.

We had long wished to have a Sai Service Center in our State to act as a focal point in all our Organizational activities. It is the divine Sankalpam and Blessing of Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai Baba that we are progressing fast in accomplishment of our dream project, the 7500 Sq.ft RCC Linter (Roof) of which was laid recently in a record time of about six months after performance of its Bhoomi Puja on 3rd October 2016. The RCC Linter of the Prayer Hall which has been designed to accommodate about 1000 persons at a time was laid in the august presence of Sh.N.Ramani National Vice President of SSSSO's India on 14th April 2017. I am sure within next few months the remaining works of this Sai Service Center will be got completed as per His Divine Will and its inauguration in this part of the land will be a grand mega event.

I sincerely thank all those known or unknown persons who whole heartedly have been extending their valuable support in our effort to see our dream project taking shape step by step. I also extend my hearty congratulations to all my State Team and all the Devotees who with love, unity and sincerity are ever ready to serve the Organisation in accordance with the divine principles enunciated by Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai Baba.

In the end, I earnestly pray to Bhagwan Baba to shower his grace and blessings on our State so that peace and tranquility returns to our State at the earliest, and to inspire and guide us so as to become His worthy instruments to carry forward His Mission.

Map of Jammu and Kashmir State

Jammu and Kashmir is the northernmost state of India. It shares its border with the State of Himachal Pradesh and Punjab to the south and with the People's Republic of China to the north east and the Pakistan administered territories of Azad Kashmir and Gilgit-Baltistan, to the west and northwest respectively. It comprises of three regions: Jammu, Kashmir valley and Ladakh. Srinagar is the summer capital of the State, and Jammu is the winter capital. While the Kashmir valley, often known as Paradise on Earth, is famous for its beautiful mountainous landscape, Jammu called city of temples attracts tens of thousands of pilgrims every year. Ladakh, also known as "Little Tibet", is renowned for high mountains and its Buddhist culture.

The state of J&K has a composite culture of all religions prevailing in the country and is famous for its communal harmony and social brotherhood. The history of the State speaks of the empires of valiant kings, the placid lakes, the greenery of the forests and the amazing rivers. In the 9th Century AD Raja Jamboolochan founded Jammu-which is also known as the city of temples. Raja Jamboolochan is said to have witnessed perfect harmony between a goat and a lion drinking water together on the banks of river Tawi. Similarly, Kashmir got its name from Kashyap Rishi who was a symbol of communal harmony and had seen many saints and sages performing meditation and tapas in solace in between the Himalayan and Peer Panjal range. The region has been a major caravan route since the ancient times providing China and other countries of the world to have trade relationships with central Asia.

In 1832, Jammu was merged with Kashmir by Raja Gulab Singh. Dogras, Pahadis, Gujjars and Gaddis are some of the tribes found in this State. Similarly, the Leh-Ladakh division is a place of Lamas and Buddhists famous for Stupas as well as for spiritual meditation. The whole desert region of Leh is at the highest altitude of around 9000 feet above sea level and during winter the temperature of this region dips up to minus 35 °C to minus 40 °C.

Jammu and Kashmir State has 22 Districts, 10 each in Kashmir and Jammu Division respectively and 2 Districts in Ladakh Division namely Leh District and Kargil District.

When you feel you cannot do good, at least desist from doing evil.

(Sri Sathya Sai Speaks-vol.5)

The root of Education and the fruit is virtue.

Selfless Service and Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai Baba

Dr. M. K. Turki
*State Coordinator Services &
Secretary Sai Prasanthi Trust, J&K, Jammu*

The Supreme Lord, the one beyond name, form and attributes incarnated in a beautiful divine form with the sweet name of Bhagwan Sri Satya Sai Baba for the redemption of mankind. Bhagwan has told us that the path of selfless service with love and dedication is the royal road to humanity and for realizing divine nature among ourselves. He has always emphasized time and again that the best way to love GOD is to “Love All Serve All”.

Bhagawan Baba even after His Maha Samadhi in April, 2011 continues to be the guiding force to guard, guide and inspire humanity. His message “Love All Serve All” and concept of Academic Education based on Human values has spread to all nooks and corners of the world irrespective of caste, colour, nationality or religion. Bhagawan's saying that “My Life is My Message” is a guiding force for all of us and he continues to boost millions worldwide to live and follow the ideal that “Service to Man is Service to God”. Swami has uplifted mankind through His teachings and examples of love and service by providing free food, health cover, free education, free water supply and similar other services to the poor and needy. Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai Baba is the source of inspiration for millions of devotees around the world and His infinite love is our sustenance. He is the indweller (Antaryami) and devotees continue to experience His omnipresence, omniscience and omnipotence. He is the ray of light guiding humanity from chaos, despair, hatred and despondency towards joy, peace and bliss.

Bhagwan Baba emphasized that workers in the Sathya Sai Seva Organization should be filled with the spirit of love and peace while taking to service activities. Whatever the difficulties, we should not become despondent or dejected. We must be bold and courageous and plunge ourselves in the service of society. Bhagwan Baba often said that the people who render Seva are benefited more than the recipients of service, in terms of spiritual progress. He said, “Do not believe that you can by means of Seva reform or reshape the world. You may or may not, that does not matter. The real value of Seva, its most visible result, is that it reforms you, reshapes you. Do Seva as a Sadhana (spiritual exercise); then you will be happy.”

I pray to Bhagwan to shower His grace on us so that we can continue to be worthy instruments in His Divine hands and serve in His Divine Mission.

Samantha Loka Sukhino Bhavantu- May all the Worlds Be Happy.

The goal is one; for all roads lead to the One God.

Madhurta (Sweetness)

Cap.Purshotam Sharma

“NARAYAN YA JAGAT MEIN DOI VASTU HAI SAAR, SAB SE MEETHO BOLIBO KARIBO PAR UPKAAR”

*(There are only two modes in this world to make an ideal living.
One is to speak sweet and other is to do good to others)*

Madhurta is one of the healthiest values of life. It is nectar full of vitality and with it health and happiness go together. How sweet of Owner of the Universe is to give us plenty of sweet gifts like mangoes, apples, babanas, grapes and many other such things. We exchange sweets to celebrate festivities. At the sweet-shop we find bees and insects hovering over the displayed sweet which reveals the fondness of these beings for the sweetness.

We have the tongue to speak sweet, ears to listen sweet, eyes to see sweet, nose to smell sweet and touch to experience sweet. Sweetness harbors other virtues like humanity, amity, benevolence, and politeness. It rewards us with love, happiness, reverence, goodwill, broad vision and honor. Sweetness begets sweetness. It cures many ailments of the mind and subdues bitterness, cruelty and egotism. Sweetness purifies the complete system.

Gods and Goddesses favorites are sweets. We offer sweets to Gods and Goddesses to propitiate them. Lord Krishna's favorite is “Makhan-mishri”. Bhilni, the tribal- woman-devotee of Rama sorted out the sweet berries to offer to her Lord. No 'Yajna' (mass feeding on auspicious occasion) is complete without a sweet dish. 'Prasad' to devotees is invariably a sweet or a sweet fruit. It elates us when we speak of sweet home, sweet heart, sweet song, sweet music, sweet meet, sweet nature, sweet voice, sweet remembrance, sweet sleep, sweet dreams and sweet of many other things. In Maduhrashtkam by Sri Vallabhacharya, the author has elegantly described Sri Krishna's sweet features, sweet plays, sweet glories. His sweet associates, His sweet creations and “sweet His everything about the Lord of sweetness”.

Bhagwan is called Madhava. A Holy city in the South famous for Meenakshi Temple is said to have been built by the Lord Shiva and Maa Parvathi in one of their incarnations, was named Madhurai, the city of honey. Cuckoo is held in all admiration for its sweet voice. The domesticated parrot is often names 'Mian Mithoo'. Among six essentials of happy domestic life is the 'Madhur –bhashini- patni' (sweet-speaking-wife) who brings heaven on earth and the family enjoys an ideal living.

Realized souls say that the bliss experienced is .like sweetness enjoyed by a dumb (Goonge-ke-Gur-ka- Swaad). God's Kingdom is 'KINGDOM OF SWEETNESS'. Glory to Sweetness!
